A first-time NSSA member who has been classified by another clay target organization in Class A or above is required to declare themselves no more than one class lower than their highest class held within the last three years. Such a first-time NSSA shooter classified by another clay target organization below Class A shall follow the regular NSSA classification procedure for a new shooter.
 I have never shot any registered clay targets with another clay target organization.
 Falsification of the above information will result in disqualification and return of all prizes and monies for all events and could also lead to suspension from the NSSA. _____
